August 16, 2022

Dear Members of the Washington Conference Branch Women's Missionary Society:

Every four years at the Quadrennial Convention of the Connectional Women's Missionary Society meeting amendments to the Constitution and Bylaws are considered for adoption. According to the 2020 - 2024 Constitution and Bylaws, you have an opportunity to propose amendments. [See Article XII of the Constitution and Article XV of the Bylaws.]

The Washington Conference Branch Constitution and Bylaws Committee will accept your proposed bylaw amendments from the date of this notice until Thursday, September 28, 2022, at 11:59 pm. No amendments shall be proposed to the Constitution and Bylaws which conflicts with the current bylaws or with the Doctrine and Discipline of the AME Church.

Please write your proposed amendments on the writeable template that is provided with this notice. Please obtain the signatures or acknowledgements as requested. If you have questions, please contact your Area Committee member. All proposed amendments will be submitted to the Second Episcopal District Committee to be referred to the District President and to the Supervisor for the final decision on referral to the Connectional Committee. The Area Committee Chair will submit your completed document to the committee chair at ms24perkins@gmail.com.

The WCB Committee members are: Allawadrick Area, Sister Jessica Smith; Celeste W. Duckette Area, Sister Sandra Wright; Catherine C. Hemmingway Area, Sister Juanita Wils, Esq.; Matilda Monroe, Sister Josephine Franklin; and Sister Margaret Smith Perkins, RP, Committee Chair.

Sincerely,

Jeanette S Hite, President
Washington Conference Branch
Women's Missionary Society

Margaret Smith Perkins, WCB Committee Chair
